

You're Not Alone

by Rev. Andrew P. Carrozza

So now you're pregnant and you're scared;

    you don't know what to do.
It seems as if your every dream
    has slipped away from you.
"How will I ever finish school?
    what will my parents say?
Will my boyfriend stick with me,
    or will he run away?"

"How could I ever raise a child?
    I'm just a kid myself.
I don't know how to be a mother;
    I'd need so much help.
I'll have to end this pregnancy
    There's no way it can be.
I'm all alone to face this problem;
    No one cares but me!"

We know that this is how you feel,
    but no! You're not alone!
There IS a place where you can turn
    where you will feel at home.
The Catholic Church is here for you
    to help you in your strife.
We want to help you keep your child
    and give your baby life.

We promise we will give you help
    in any way we can.
Because we know God cares for you;
    you're part of His great plan.
Your child will bring you so much joy,
    will love you without end.
Let us help you bear the load;
    in us you have a friend!

You see, we care for everyone,
    your child as well as you.
Your welfare is of great concern
    to us; we'll see you through!
When you bear pain, we suffer too!
    to us you're highly priced.
You're part of us, we are one body!
    ONE BODY IN CHRIST!
